Mark is a Fellow with Litigation Counsel of America, an invitation-only trial lawyer honorary society with limited membership representing less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers. Mark's trial work focuses on litigation of product, professional, oil & gas and transportation liability matters. Drawing on his 35 years of litigation experience, Mark is frequently asked to serve as a mediator in complex personal injury, product liability, professional liability and commercial litigation matters. Mark is a partner and most recently served on the firm's executive committee for over 10 years.

Mark has served in leadership positions for state and national defense organizations for many years. Mark served as the President of the Minnesota Defense Lawyers Association (2011); as Chair of the DRI Trial Tactics Committee (2006-2008); as Co-Chair of the MDLA Nursing Home & Assisted Living Committee (2006) and as Chair of the USLAW Network (2008); Member, DRI Law Institute Committee - Drug & Medical Device, Trial Tactics, Retail and Professional Liability (2011-2014); Co-Chair of USLAW's Product Liability Committee (2016-2018). In addition, Mark previously served on the Board of Directors for the Regions Hospital Foundation and is currently serving on the Gillette Children's Philanthropy Board.

Mark and his wife, Christine, keep busy with their three adult daughters. As a family, they enjoy spending time at their cabin in northern Minnesota, where Mark was born and raised. An avid outdoorsman, Mark loves to hunt, fish and hike.
